Procedure for submitting supporting documentary proof online

Requirements

In order to present supporting documentary proof online, the beneficiary must have:

- Digital certificate or idCAT Mobile for beneficiaries who are Spanish or foreigners residents in Spain.
- Accreditation (username/password) for beneficiaries not resident in Spain.

Submission

- 1. Check the terms and conditions of the call for applications to see what supporting documentary proof is required in order to proceed with the submission procedure.
- 2. Prepare the documentary proof submission form:
  - For competitive grants for music or the performing arts:
    - a. Fill in the appropriate form and save it in order to submit it together with the supporting documentary proof:
      - Music
      - Performing arts
  - For other competitive grants, fill the Excel form and submit in PDF format:
    - a. Download the Excel template of the supporting documentary proof form in the tab that applies to your grant on the Institut Ramon Llull's website.
    - b. Fill in all the tabs: incomes, expenses and summary, of this Excel template.
    - c. Create a PDF version that includes all the tabs (the "Entire workbook" option in create/print to PDF).
- 3. Invoices, as well as proofs of payment, must be in PDF format. If the original document is on paper, scan it and convert it to a PDF document.
- 4. You must submit this supporting documentary proof, together with the form you filled in in accordance with point 2 above, via the Institut Ramon Llull's virtual office by accessing the dossier using a digital certificate/idCAT Mobile or by accrediting yourself by means of your username and password.
- 5. Once you have completed the procedure, confirmation of your submission will be generated and sent to your email address.
